Springfield, MA – Mayor Domenic J. Sarno along with Patrick Sullivan, Executive Director of Parks, Buildings and Recreation Management, and WWLP reporter Sy Becker will hold a joint announcement in the lead up for the public movie nights being held in Springfield's parks this summer. The movie series begins next week, on Monday, July 17th. Movies will play on Mondays at Kenefick Park, Wednesdays at Blunt Park, and Fridays at Forest Park, all at 8:15 p.m. for three weeks. Week one is Homeward Bound, week two is Tarzan and week three will be Up.

Mayor Sarno stated, "My administration's continued efforts to enhance quality of life with these types of family fun entertainment. How appropriate it is to have the legendary Sy Becker 'with another look at the movies' being part of this family friendly activities in our beautiful park system under the direction of Pat Sullivan and team."

Patrick Sullivan stated, "We appreciate Mayor Sarno's commitment to restore programming and activities for our residents. Movies in the park provide an opportunity for the whole family to be together under the stars and enjoying time together. Bring your favorite movie snack and have a good time!"
